Next Town Hall Meeting: Tuesday April 28th, East Los Angeles Public Library, 4837 E 3rd St, Los Angeles, CA 90022, 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Los Angeles, C.A. – The working group tasked with giving the Board of Supervisors recommendations on the future Civilian Oversight Commission's size, scope, structure and responsibilities is hosting a series of nine town hall meetings in Los Angeles County's five districts to reach out to the community for recommendations and comments. With 50 - 100 people in attendance at each of the initial six town hall meetings in Compton, Sylmar, La Puente, Lancaster, Hacienda Heights, and Arcadia there has been overwhelming public support for a commission with subpoena power and without law enforcement or retired law enforcement.

The Coalition to End Sheriff Violence in Los Angeles Jails – which includes over 20 organizations countywide, survivors of sheriff violence, their families, and communities – have been calling on the county for three years to create an independent civilian oversight commission over the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department with subpoena power. In addition to subpoena power their demands are 1) that it be composed of 9 members, 5 appointed by the supervisors and 4 appointed from a list of nominees identified by the community, 2) it directs the functions of the Inspector General, 3) is comprised of no current or former law enforcement, 4) it has its own legal counsel.

Tomorrow's Town Hall takes place in Supervisor Hilda Solis's district 1 at the East Los Angeles Public Library. Hilda Solis made headlines last year by voting in favor of the Civilian Oversight Commission as one of her first motions as supervisor. She has not yet publicly addressed the community's demands.

“For years the public has cried out for a commission with the power to hold the largest and most violent sheriff's department in the country accountable,” says Mark-Anthony Johnson, director of health and wellness at Dignity and Power Now. “That's why The Coalition to End Sheriff Violence put this issue on the map and that's why Hilda Solis supported it. We expect no less tomorrow in East LA –or anywhere else in Los Angeles County.”
